

Message from the Lord

Blessings Rev. Davis. I wanted to share something that was given to me around one year after the anointing took place. One morning on my first break at work, I was reading a book someone gave me. While reading, the Holy Spirit came to me and told me to put the book down, and open your bible to Acts.

I sat there pondering on what I just heard. Again, I was told to the book down, and open your bible to Acts. Was this of myself I thought, or was God speaking to me?? Again, the same words were spoken. This time I knew it was not of myself, and put the book away, and opened my bible.

It opened to Acts chapter 22. Then, I was told to begin reading. I continued till I reached the 14 and 15 verses. At this point I was told to stop reading. This is what I was told. For this reason I have called you. I was in total shock from what I was just shown. At that moment, I had to ask.....why me Lord?

This is what I was told. You were chosen before the foundation of the earth for this purpose. I was so overwhelmed by what just was spoken to me. I just sat there for a while pondering on what just happened. Words fall short of what I felt at that moment. I was stunned to say the least.

That was all I thought about the rest of the day. When I got home, my brother was the first one I shared this with. He too was overwhelmed by what I shared with him. Acts 22:14-15. Then he said: The God of our fathers has chosen you to know His will and to see the Righteous One and to hear words from His mouth. You will be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:14-15 King James Bible, KJV

14. And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15. For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.
