

Wedding Banquet and the Five Foolish Virgins

Blessings Rev Davis. This is a short dream with two parts, but has much meaning. In the first part of the dream, I was riding in the back of a car. I was not shown who was driving. But, whoever was, was driving past something I was to witness.

As we were traveling down this road, I was looking out the right rear side window, and as we were passing by a gas station, this is what I saw. I saw a long white limousine parked where gas pumps should have been, but there were no pumps. And, standing beside the open rear door was a young woman with shoulder length blonde hair. She was dressed in a white wedding gown.

Seated in the rear were four other women whose appearance and dress were identical to the one standing outside the car. Everything about them was identical. As we drove past, the one who was getting ready to join the others in the rear of the limo, turned and looked right at me, and smiled. (They think all is well)

In the second part of the dream, I was shown walking into the basement of my parent's church. When inside, the basement area was full of round tables with chairs here and there. It appeared whatever took place, was already over. There were two men and a woman still in the banquet area. Two men I knew well, because they were friends of my parents, and also attended their church.

There was a woman in the dream as well. She was walking around back in the kitchen area. No words were spoken by her. Her hair was styled the same as the virgins, except hers was black. This made me think of the Harlot of Revelation chapter 17. Most of the world has become intoxicated from the wine she has served. And, she has committed fornication with the rulers of the earth.

Gospel of the Holy Twelve Lection XLIV verse 12. Woe is the time when the spirit of the world entereth into the Church, and MY doctrines and precepts are made void through the corruption of men and women. Woe is the world when the Light is hidden. Woe is the world when these things shall be.

At this point of the dream I seen my dad walk in with five tuxedo jackets draped over his left arm. The jackets were bud green in color and the material was crushed velvet. At this point, one of the men asked my dad emphatically: Paul, where did you get those jackets? My dad replied with a bit of a laugh.....I got them at a garage sale. This represents that salvation of the soul can be cheaply obtained without much effort. Nothing could be father from the TRUTH! At this point, the dream ended.

The gas station had no pumps, because fuel for their lamps could not be purchased. As they went out to buy oil for their lamps, the bridegroom came. That is why I was shown the banquet had already taken place. My dad symbolizes those who want to wear their own apparel, only let us be called by thy name Lord.

Isaiah chapter 4 speaks of this condition. Lection LXII of the Gospel of the Holy Twelve, addresses the parable of the Ten Virgins. When one reads Isaiah 4, and the parable of the Ten Virgins written in the Gospel of the Holy Twelve, one has a very good understanding of the meaning of this dream. The seven women of Isaiah 4, are the rebellious and thus defiled churches of this age. Jesus also uses the parable of the ten virgins: five wise, and five foolish, to depict a condition prior to, and at His second return.

Lection LXII 5:6. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were "ready" went in with Him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterwards came also the other virgins, saying Lord, Lord open to us. But He answered and said, verily I say unto you. I know you not.

The bud green color represents the season in which this is going to take place. In the Gospel of the Holy Twelve, Jesus for tells the time of the end. Lection LXI verse 12, Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh. So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. This is what the bud green color of the tuxedo jackets represents.

The Holy Spirit has explicitly made known to my brother Paul: In your life time, what has been shown and spoken to you and your brother, will be fulfilled.

Rev Davis, there is NO doubt, God has called and anointed you to try and reach those who have been misled by counterfeit and thus false doctrine: What is known as "Paulinity". It is NOT the genuine teachings of Jesus the Christ. It may sound smooth and appealing, but it is the wide path, that leads to destruction. This is the generation that will be given the chance, to hear the Genuine Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Our hope and prayer is, that many will embrace the truth when it is presented to them.

God bless you Rev Davis, for answering the calling God has placed upon your life. Your Powerful work has and will help many find their way through the falsifications of the evil one. As Jesus said: We MUST be wise money changers. Knowing how to determine what is genuine from counterfeit. May the Father Mother, Christ Jesus and Holy Spirit be given all the praise glory and honor, in what will transpire in the many days ahead.

Fellow Warrior and Brother in Christ, Russell.
